A message from Mrs Fanzo

'I am the vine, you are the branches...'

In this week's Gospel from John, Jesus, declares: "I am the vine; you are the branches." In this metaphor, Jesus likens himself to a vine, the source of life and sustenance, while his followers are depicted as branches, reliant on him for spiritual nourishment, strength and growth.

By exploring this passage, we encourage children to reflect on what it means to be connected to Jesus and how they can emulate the supportive relationship between a vine and its branches in their own lives. Just as branches draw strength and vitality from the vine, children are prompted to consider how they can offer support, encouragement, and care to others, mirroring the nurturing role of the vine in fostering growth and flourishing among its branches.

Catholic Life

This week, there have been a number of events. Well done to all of the children who participated in reconciliation this week. I would like to say a particular to Fr Aaron and Fr Peter for joining us for this special sacrament and a big thank you to Mr Doyle for organising. On Tuesday, 1G held a liturgy for St George's Day. 3M did a fantastic job of representing Team Marist at Our Lady's on Wednesday and today, 3B finished the week on a real high with a fabulous worship. I particularly enjoyed their poetry recital- it was wonderful children and you could hear every word! I would like to congratulate all of the children involved in all of these events and I would also like to thank their teachers for their tireless work in organising these for their children. Well done to Miss Kirk, Mr Moore and Miss Beddow.

Well done, Team Marist!

Thank you to Mrs Walsh for helping us to achieve this accreditation!

Wider Experiences- Can you help?

We are seeking volunteers from our school community to come and share their experiences and expertise with our Marist Learners. Do you have a career or hobby you're passionate about? Would you like to inspire our children and broaden their horizons? Your involvement can make a significant impact on our children's futures. If you're interested in volunteering, please contact info@marist.surrey.sch.uk to liaise with Mrs Wort. Thank you for your support in shaping the future leaders of tomorrow.

Food in School

Please may we remind families of our procedures regarding the sharing of sweets or cakes among children at our school. While we understand the generosity behind such gestures, we kindly request that children refrain from bringing in sweets or cakes to share or send home with other children. This is in place to promote a healthy and inclusive environment for all children, considering various dietary restrictions and health concerns that may be present within our school community. We appreciate your understanding and cooperation in upholding this, ensuring the well-being of all our Marist learners.

Disco

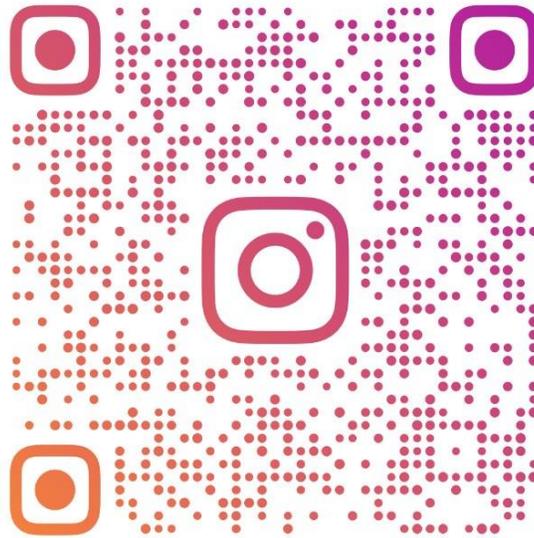

A huge thanks to the PTA, particularly Miss Render, for organising the fantastic discos that are taking place as you read this! It's been a joyous sight seeing the children laughing, dancing, and having fun together. The hard work and dedication in putting together such enjoyable events are truly appreciated by all of Team Marist. Thank you for creating wonderful memories for our children. We hope they are having a wonderful time!

With every blessing,

Emily Fanzo

Parent Survey

As those of you who have been at the school in previous years will remember, we usually conduct a parental survey during the summer term as a way of gathering the parents views of The Marist.

The data collected in the parental survey is shared with the staff team, and with governors.

As well as general 'tick box' questions, there are also two questions that ask for a written response. We would ask that these more personalised responses encompass both positive and developmental comments relating to the whole school year.

As always, if there are specific or immediate issues regarding your child that need addressing, these should be directed to your child's class teacher in the first instance. Its anonymous nature means that we cannot reply to individual concerns raised via the survey.

Thank you in advance for completing the parental survey, the results of which will be published in due course. Please complete the survey by Tuesday 7th May, 2024.

With thanks for your continued support

PTA Meeting

At time of writing, this evening's disco hasn't yet happened. All who have been involved in organising it sincerely hope that all of the children have a great time and enjoy the old school vibe!

The Marist is now named in one of the charity collection pots in Tesco, both in Brooklands and in the local Tesco in West Byfleet as well as in other stores in the local area. Please remember when you're shopping in store to grab your token and support the Marist. If we can get the most tokens, Tesco will give us £1500 to help put on an amazing Summer BBQ later this term, so please do remember to support us.

Thanks to those who made the PTA meeting on Monday. During the meeting, we discussed plans for the Summer BBQ and the PTA for next year. There were some great ideas around the BBQ which we are now investigating, but we'd always welcome more. If you have anything you think would work well at our biggest event of the year, please email us on pta@marist.surrey.sch.uk.

We also discussed how the PTA would look next year as I will be stepping down after the Summer BBQ. I've been Chair now for three years so it really is someone else's turn to take this on. All of the events for the Winter Term now have volunteers to organise them (thanks to Danielle, Muireann and Louise). The role of Chair doesn't need to be just one person either: two or three people who get on well together could take on the job. If you're interested in stepping forward, please start coming to PTA meetings so you can get an idea of what might be involved.

The next textile collection is on Thursday 20th June. Please start collecting any outgrown clothes and bags and accessories for donation. We receive 50p per kilo for everything usable that's collected, so it makes a massive difference to us and costs nothing to run.

Friday 28th June is the Summer BBQ. More information to follow on this later in the term but for now please get the date in your diaries!

Have a lovely weekend!

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about AMONG US

A multiplayer 'social deduction' game set in outer space, Among Us enjoyed a surge in popularity in 2020, and has since maintained a dedicated fan-base (globally around 80 million regular players each month) thanks to its unique nature, simple premise and ease of access across numerous platforms. The game's on-screen action revolves around spionage, disguise and deception – and there are certain pointers to be drawn with some of the real-life risks that parents and carers of young Among Us players need to be aware of.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

SENSITIVE PREMISE
 In Among Us, up to three players are secretly assigned to be crew imposters, looking to murder their colleagues while the others try to unmask them. Whilst the concept is not far removed from traditional games like the same number of TV gameshows The Truers, some parents may feel uncomfortable about their children playing a video game in which deception and killing are centralised.

VIRTUAL VIOLENCE
 The on-screen death of characters may be fundamental to the gameplay of Among Us, but the majority of the moments depicted are still one-dimensional (complaints) and only appear very briefly, however it is worth bearing in mind that the game has a rich cast of characters, including certain elements (however heavily they are edited) that could still upset some younger players.

CHAT BETWEEN PLAYERS
 With up to 15 people participating in each game online, a large part of Among Us' appeal is speculating with imposters and the imposters' reactions. This dialogue through the in-game text chat can occasionally become heated – mild words of colour, involve people (including adults) who they don't know in real life.

GOING OFF PLATFORM

While Among Us provides basic ways to communicate, many games prefer to use external services such as Discord – a popular app which offers voice and video chat functions. These links are not only made convenient for players to have inappropriate language – or be exposed to inappropriate behaviour – in an environment which isn't regulated by the game itself.

IN-GAME PURCHASES
 Among Us is free to download on mobile devices, and costs less than £2 to obtain on computer and PC. A feature in the game's purchase menu is that the game also includes options to play for a price (such as removing ads on the mobile version or unlocking different costumes). It's certainly possible that a child could spend a significant sum without realising it.

Advice for Parents & Carers

CONSIDER SOFTER ALTERNATIVES
 Although Among Us is hugely popular with young players, it's possible that some children might find the murder themes unsettling. If so, plenty of similar social deduction games are available for both digital and traditional board game formats, which cater to the potentially greater awareness some parents around undercover spies, for instance, and there's a range of board games that are themed around.

AMONG US, AMONG FRIENDS
 When your child and their friends get together, they can enjoy a private game of Among Us by choosing a 'local lobby' – that is, only people connected to the same Wi-Fi (their home network, for example) can enter. This prevents any random online users – who may be total strangers – from joining and removes the need for voice chat, as the players are all physically in the same location.

CHAT ABOUT CHATTING
 You might feel it's prudent to talk to your child about the risks associated with voice chat while gaming, explaining in particular that strangers online can't always be who they claim to be. Keeping the conversation relaxed will reinforce your child's confidence that they can always come to you with any online concerns – not just about Among Us, but any potential future issues as well.

DISCUSS DISCORD
 In general, Discord is an excellent app for keeping online communities together because of its use of dedicated individual servers, which allow conversations to be sorted into different channels and can be locked down to specific users. Once you're familiar with the platform, you should set up a secure server for your child and friends to communicate during games of Among Us, with no access for people they don't know.

STOP SURPRISE SPENDING
 If you're concerned about the possibility of your child picking up on unexpected bills on Among Us' microtransactions, you should consider using a prepaid card with an limit. Likewise, you could specify in the game's options that adult authorisation is required for every purchase, and you could make sure that no payment methods are added to the device that your child plays the game on.

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about ROBLOX

Roblox is one of the most popular video games on the market! By 2020, the game's makers were claiming that more than half of children in the USA play it. It's a 'sandbox' style game which offers a huge amount of creative freedom: it lets players create their own gaming experiences with the Roblox Studio to build custom levels and games, which can then be shared with other players online. Roblox fosters creative thinking and enjoys a robust online community of fans.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

CONTACT WITH STRANGERS
Roblox encourages players to communicate online (including in groups that they're in). This could expose children to risks such as unwanted contact, predators, harassment, griefing and more. Roblox offers a huge amount of creative freedom: it lets players create their own gaming experiences with the Roblox Studio to build custom levels and games, which can then be shared with other players online. Roblox fosters creative thinking and enjoys a robust online community of fans.

PUBLIC SERVERS

Public servers are open to anyone who wants to play. Most Roblox players will instead be on public servers that have a specific theme or game. Public servers are open to anyone who wants to play. ONLINE DATERS

These are also called 'OGERS' and are quite common in Roblox. An OGER is an individual who joins a game with the intention of meeting someone in the real world - and eventually meet in person. Such online daters are against the Roblox community guidelines, but this usually doesn't affect Ogers, some players build Roblox game worlds have even been designed with online dating specifically in mind.

IN-APP PURCHASES

Roblox is actually free to download and play, but there is a cost to most things there are some hidden costs. Players are encouraged to make purchases in the game, for example, using Roblox money. People can also buy virtual items (like avatars, hats, etc.) to spend on cosmetic items in the game, and some purchases are not even free to have a cost.

Advice for Parents & Carers

SET PARENTAL CONTROLS

Roblox comes with several parental control options, which are explained in our Roblox parental controls guide. It's essential to enter the correct date of birth for your child, as this often leads to automatically being given parental controls. The game also allows parents and carers to set monthly spending restrictions and monitor their child's account.

DISABLE PRIVATE MESSAGING

Roblox's private messaging function raises the risk of children being contacted by people they may not want to speak with - potentially leading to bullying, harassment, identity and other issues. The game does have a 'Disable Messages' option for anyone who hasn't been added as a friend on your child's account.

PRIVATE SERVERS

If your child has genuine friends who they play Roblox with, you'll find a private or 'private' server. However, the risk of contact from strangers is still there, as some people could have your child's account ID (your child's Roblox ID) to send them private messages. It's important to talk with your child about who they are playing the game with.

MONITOR SPENDING

If they don't understand they're using real money, it's easy for children to accidentally spend a lot of money. The game has several parental controls to place limits on their spending and avoid any nasty financial surprises. Ensuring that you have your child's credit card or payment account also makes it harder for your child to spend money inadvertently.

DEALING WITH STRANGERS

At some point in their development, your child will need to learn how to deal with strangers. Allow them to bring back and report any user who is asking them or sending uncomfortable questions, talking to them about what a CE is, discuss a good which they should never tell a stranger online - will help them understand how to communicate with others safely in the digital world.

Absence

Just to remind parents/carers that if they take their children out of school without authority for 5 or more days (which do not have to be consecutive), they will be liable to receive a penalty notice. Currently the amount payable under a penalty notice is £60.00 per parent/carer per child if paid within 21 days. Thereafter the amount increases to £120.00 if paid between 21 and 28 days. If the penalty notice remains unpaid after 28 days, the Local Authority will consider a prosecution in the Magistrates Court. Please note that penalty notices are issued per parent/carer per child so a family of two parents and two children will receive 4 penalty notices.
