The Marist Primary School				Knowledge Organiser
Year 3, Spring: Stone Age to Iron Age				Key Question: How did people's lives differ between the Stone Age and the Iron Age?
Lesson 1 What is pre- history?	Lesson 2 How did hunter gatherers survive?	Lesson 3 What do artef tell us about t Stoneage?		Lesson 4 What type of homes did early people live in?	Lesson 5 & 6 What was Skara Brae?	Lesson 7 What is the smelting process?	What Goods	are Grave What		son 9 is henge?	Lesson 10 What was life like in an Iron Age hillfort?
BC	Before Christ – a year before Christ was born.	Stone Age	hum	en the first lans began to in Europe.	settlement	A place when group of plive together many differ buildings.	eople er in	artefact		An object made by a human that has historical importance.
AD	"Anno Domini"  — Latin for "in the year of our Lord" (after Christ had been born)	Bronze Age	bego and	en humans an to farm land started to use al for jewellery	tribes	A group of people wh together for protaction	o live or	Neolithic		The Late Stone Age: 4,000 BC to 2,500 BC
Paleolithic	The Early Stone Age: 500,000 BC to 8,000 BC	Iron Age	in co	en humans lived ommunities, ned land and d iron to make s.	agriculture	The practi farming la and growing crops.	nd	archaeo	rchaeologist lear		son who about the by digging up cts and ng them.
Mesolithic	The Middle Stone Age: 8,000 BC to 4,000 BC	People make cave paintings.  4.500-3.500BC4.0	o-3,50  ing starts in to spread to s	and ad. Metal starts to be 1,200-800BC	used. The first copper minimare dug.  1,200-800BC	100BC	are Iron is the	used a lot more on before. AD43 Romans invade Iron Age ends.			