A message from Mrs Fanzo

'This, then, is what I command you: love one another...'

In this week's Gospel, Jesus asks us to love one another as he loves us. He talks about the importance of looking out for our friends, and how we can all be friends of Jesus. We will be talking to the children about what it means to be a Marist Learner. We will reflect on the qualities a Marist Learner has and how we can share this with others. Through embodying our values, we exemplify the love Jesus calls us to, fostering a community where each member feels valued and cherished.

Catholic Life

Following worship on Monday, we had a special assembly about Ramadan and Eid where we found similarities between Ramadan and Lent. Thank you to Mrs Hussain for supporting with this and providing resources! Well done to 1P for their exceptional worship session this morning- they were so articulate! We loved hearing about your learning, 1P! Thank you to Mrs Helbsy, Mrs Cunningham, and all the adults in 1P for their support. Thanks also goes to 4T for representing The Marist in Mass, highlighting our school and parish links. As a gentle reminder, our next Mass is the Ascension Mass, scheduled for 9 am next Thursday. It would be lovely to see our Marist families there.

Football

Well done to all of our young footballers this week! Year 6 did brilliantly in their match on Wednesday, showing great sportsmanship and winning their match 9-2! Today, Year 5 also went to an event for football and did really well, coming third in their group. Well done, children, we are really proud of you. Thank you to all of the adults have supported these games.

Wider Experiences- Can you help?

We are seeking support with creating a video tour of the school for new parents. We understand that not all families have the opportunity to visit our school in person. Through this video tour, we aim to bridge the gap and offer families a window into the enriching educational journey that awaits their children at The Marist. If you would be able to support with recording or creating a video, please do contact us!

Another project we are looking to complete is a prayer garden for our children in the school. If you, or someone you know, has any expertise in garden design who might be able to advise us or support us in this project, please do let us know.

We are seeking volunteers from our school community to come and share their experiences and expertise with our Marist Learners. Do you have a career or hobby you're passionate about? Would you like to inspire our children and broaden their horizons? Your involvement can make a significant impact on our children's futures.

If you're interested in volunteering, please contact info@marist.surrey.sch.uk to liaise with Mrs Wort. Thank you for your support in shaping the future leaders of tomorrow.

Food in School

At The Marist, we strive to maintain a safe environment for every child, including those with allergies. If you provide food for your child at the end of the day, please do so off of school premises. This precautionary measure helps minimize the risk of allergens entering our school grounds and ensures the well-being of all children. Thank you for your understanding and support.

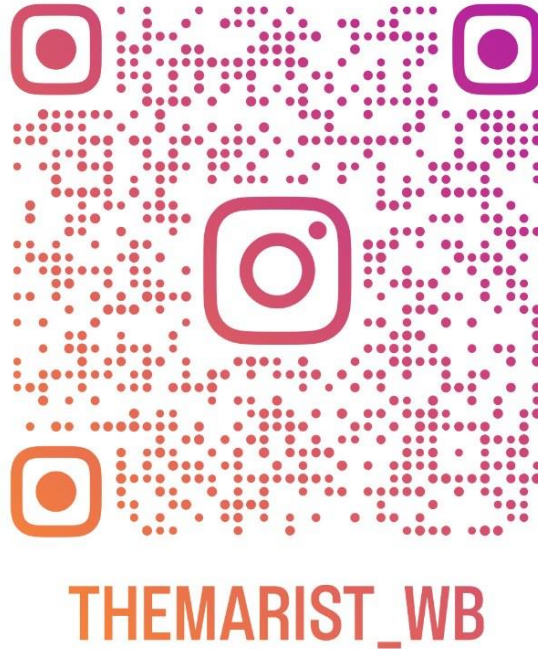

Wishing everyone a delightful and sun-filled bank holiday weekend! Whether you're embarking on outdoor adventures or simply basking in the serenity of a leisurely day, I hope you have an enjoyable weekend. We will look forward to seeing you all on Tuesday.

With every blessing,

Emily Fanzo

Parent Survey

As those of you who have been at the school in previous years will remember, we usually conduct a parental survey during the summer term as a way of gathering the parents views of The Marist.

The data collected in the parental survey is shared with the staff team, and with governors.

As well as general 'tick box' questions, there are also two questions that ask for a written response. We would ask that these more personalised responses encompass both positive and developmental comments relating to the whole school year.

As always, if there are specific or immediate issues regarding your child that need addressing, these should be directed to your child's class teacher in the first instance. Its anonymous nature means that we cannot reply to individual concerns raised via the survey.

Thank you in advance for completing the parental survey, the results of which will be published in due course. Please complete the survey by Tuesday 7th May, 2024.

With thanks for your continued support

Hollie Dynan and your team: thank you so much for organising such a splendid disco for the children last week. I think it's safe to say that the children had an excellent time - the DJ kept the younger disco entertained with plenty of games and the tunes kept pumping for the older classes too. Thanks to Hollie Dynan, Kim Shields, Rosamaria Mistretta, and Louise Checkley for organising the disco. Thanks to the staff who gave up their time to help orchestrate, as there are just some tasks the PTA can't do: Mrs Lopez, Mrs Fanzo, Mrs Way, Mrs Punter, Mrs P - D, Mrs T, Mrs Faruggio and Mrs Cunningham. Thanks too to Mrs Sargent in the office for helping with our admin and sending out messages. Thanks also to the vast number of you who volunteered to help as the disco couldn't have happened without you: Cath Dwyer, Vanessa Docherty, Sherrick Reid, Gen Rose, Claire Johnston, Adrian Pavia, Lucia Bardot, Caitlyn Lowery, Tony Woodruff, Rachel Maitland, Hazel Cameron, Krisha Shrestha, Clare Boughen, Sid Gulati and Danielle Hayes. If I have missed anyone off, I sincerely apologise.

The Marist is now named in one of the charity collection pots in Tesco, both in Brooklands and in the local Tesco in West Byfleet as well as in other stores in the local area. Please remember when you're shopping in store to grab your token and support the Marist. If we can get the most tokens, Tesco will give us £1500 to help put on an amazing Summer BBQ later this term, so please do remember to support us.

Our next PTA meeting on Friday 17th May will focus on ideas for the Summer BBQ, events for the Winter Term 2024/2025, as well as some ideas that have been put forward for later in the academic year next year. If you have any ideas, would like to know more or would like to get involved, please do join us. I am stepping down after the Summer BBQ so that more people we can have coming forward to get involved, the easier it is on the few who already join us regularly to make our events happen. If you can't make the meeting but have ideas or want to volunteer to help, please email the PTA at pta@marist.surrey.sch.uk.

The next textile collection is on Thursday 20th June. Please start collecting any outgrown clothes and bags and accessories for donation. We receive 50p per kilo for everything usable that's collected, so it makes a massive difference to us and costs nothing to run.

Friday 28th June is the Summer BBQ. More information to follow on this later in the term but for now please get the date in your diaries!

Have a lovely weekend!

Online Safety

At National Online Safety, we believe in empowering parents, carers and trusted adults with the information to help inform conversations about online safety with their children, should they need it. This guide focuses on some of the risks that parents and carers of young people should be aware of. Please visit www.nationalonline-safety.com for further guides, facts and tips for safety.

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about AMONG US

A multiplayer 'social deduction' game set in outer space, Among Us enjoyed a surge in popularity in 2020, and has since maintained a dedicated fan-base (globally around 80 million regular players each month) thanks to its unique nature, simple premise and ease of access across numerous platforms. The game's on-screen action revolves around danger, disguise and deception – and there are certain pointers to be drawn with some of the real-life risks that parents and carers of young Among Us players need to be aware of.

AGE RESTRICTION
PEGI

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

SENSITIVE PREMISE
Among Us, up to three players are secretly assigned to be 'crew members', tasked with murdering their colleagues while the survivors try to investigate them. While the concept is not far removed from traditional games like Cluedo or 20 Questions, the premise, some parents may feel uncomfortable about their children playing a video game in which deception and killing are centralised.

VIRTUAL VIOLENCE
The on-screen death of characters may be fundamental to the gameplay of Among Us, but the majority of the internet's depiction of the game is deliberately cartoonish and only appears very rarely, however it is worth bearing in mind that the game has a PEGI rating of 7+ meaning that certain elements (however heavily disguised they may be) could upset some younger players.

CHAT BETWEEN PLAYERS
With up to 10 people participating in most game online, it's hard not to feel Among Us' appeal is speculating with hidden agendas with the impostors. This dialogue through the in-game text chat can occasionally become heated – and could, of course, involve your child being put into contact with people (including adults) who they don't know in real life.

GOING OFF PLATFORM
While Among Us provides basic ways to communicate, many gamers prefer to use external services such as Discord, a popular app which offers voice and video chat functions. These unmoderated, peer-to-peer services can be a double-edged sword, as they allow players to hear inappropriate language – or be exposed to receiving their privacy in an environment which isn't regulated by the game itself.

IN-GAME PURCHASES
Among Us is free to download on mobile devices, and costs less than £1 to obtain on consoles and PC. A notable in-game purchase, though, is that the game also includes options to pay for upgrades such as removing ads on the mobile version or adding cosmetic touches to characters (such as different costumes). It's certainly possible that a child could spend a significant sum without realising it.

Advice for Parents & Carers

CONSIDER SOFTER ALTERNATIVES
Although Among Us is hugely popular with young gamers, it's possible that some children might find the murder theme unsettling. If so, plenty of similar social deduction games are available for both digital and traditional board game formats, which demystify the potentially grizzly elements some games around undercover spies, for instance, and there's even a board game inspired by Among Us.

CHAT ABOUT CHATTING
You might feel it's prudent to talk to your child about the risks associated with voice chat while gaming, explaining in particular that strangers can't know who they're talking to. Encouraging the conversation (rather than reinforcing your child's confidence that they can always come to you with any online concerns – not just about Among Us, but any potential future issues as well).

DISCUSS DISCORD
In general, Discord is an excellent app for keeping several communities together because of its use of dedicated individual servers, which allow conversations to be kept separate from each other. Once you're familiar with the platform, you should set up a secure server for your child and their friends to communicate during games of Among Us, with no access for people they don't know.

AMONG US, AMONG FRIENDS
When your child and their friends get together, they can enjoy a private game of Among Us by choosing a 'local lobby' – that is, only people connected to the same Wi-Fi (or local network, for example) can enter. This prevents any random online users – who may be total strangers – from joining and taking part in the game, so the players are all physically in the same location.

STOP SURPRISE SPENDING
If you're concerned about the possibility of your child picking up on unexpected bill on Among Us' microtransactions, you should consider using a prepaid card with a set limit. Likewise, you could specify in the game's options that adult authorisation is required for every purchase, or at least make sure there are no payment methods on the device that your child plays the game on.

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about ROBLOX

Roblox is one of the most popular video games on the market. By 2020, the game's makers were claiming that more than half of children in the USA play it. It's a sandbox-style game which offers a huge amount of creative freedom. It lets players create their own gaming experiences with the Roblox Studio to online custom levels and games, which can then be shared with other players online. Roblox fosters creative thinking and enjoys a robust online community of fans.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

CONTACT WITH STRANGERS

Roblox encourages players to communicate online (including using chat). This could expose children to risks such as unwanted sexual predators, harassment, griefers and more. In the game chat, you can filter, but isn't perfect. Players can still send harmful messages to others - such as general abuse - while predators can reach out to children directly.

PUBLIC SERVERS

Roblox has public or 'open' servers which allow people to play exclusively with their friends. However, most Roblox players will instead be on public servers that anyone can join. Carers can host games which focus on all kinds of subjects, including direct player interaction. Some games are 'safe', therefore, but not all. Children more at risk of contact from strangers than others.

ONLINE DATERS

These are also called 'daters' and are quite common in Roblox. An 'dater' is an individual who joins a game with the intention of finding someone to date online - and eventually meet in person. Such online dating is against the Roblox community guidelines, but this usually doesn't deter 'daters'. Some player-built Roblox game worlds have even been designed with online dating specifically in mind.

IN-APP PURCHASES

Roblox is actually free to download and play, but there is more than one way to spend money. Players are encouraged to make purchases. People can also buy virtual items (like in-game currency) to spend on cosmetic items in the game, and some private or VIP servers like have a cost.

Advice for Parents & Carers

SET PARENTAL CONTROLS

Roblox comes with several parental control options, which are explained well on the game's official website. It's essential to enter the correct date of birth for your child, as this often leads to automatically being the appropriate age limit. The game also allows parents and carers to set monthly spending restrictions and monitor their child's account.

DISABLE PRIVATE MESSAGING

Roblox's private messaging function raises the risk of children being contacted by people they may not want to speak with - potentially leading to bullying, harassment, teasing and more. The game allows you to disable messages from anyone who hasn't been added as a friend on your child's account.

PRIVATE SERVERS

If your child has genuine friends who they play Roblox with, private servers (or a private or VIP server) increases the risk of contact from strangers. Even then, however, some people could make your child's life more difficult. If your child is a Roblox fan, it's important to talk with them regularly about what they are playing the game with.

MONITOR SPENDING

If they don't understand they're using real money, it's easy for children to accidentally spend a sizable amount in the game. Using parental controls to place limits on their spending will help avoid any nasty financial surprises. Ensuring that you have two-factor authentication on your payment accounts also makes it harder for your child to spend money inadvertently.

DEALING WITH STRANGERS

At some point in their development, your child will need to learn how to deal with strangers online. Show them their own uncomfortable questions, talking to them about what's OK to discuss and what they should never tell a stranger online - will help them understand how to communicate with others safely in the digital world.

Just to remind parents/carers that if they take their children out of school without authority for 5 or more days (which do not have to be consecutive), they will be liable to receive a penalty notice. Currently the amount payable under a penalty notice is £60.00 per parent/carers per child if paid within 21 days. Thereafter the amount increases to £120.00 if paid between 21 and 28 days. If the penalty notice remains unpaid after 28 days, the Local Authority will consider a prosecution in the Magistrates

Court. Please note that penalty notices are issued per parent/carer per child so a family of two parents and two children will receive 4 penalty notices.

Surrey County Council is not responsible for authorising pupil absence and therefore cannot withdraw any Penalty Notice requests without the written permission of the Headteacher.
