

Year 4

Creation & Covenant

Learning Focus 1

Life in Abraham's day.

God's covenant with Abraham is the foundation of the faith of the people of the Old and New Testaments: Judaism and Christianity.

Faith is believing in God, trusting what God reveals, and following God's loving purpose to live a good life.

Through living out virtues of faith, hope and love, Christians are drawn into a closer relationship with the Holy Trinity.

Abraham is a model of how to pray.

There are many examples of people whose life and work are an example of faith made active in love.

Learning Focus 4

God keeps his promise to Abraham.

Learning Focus 2

God calls Abraham.

Learning Focus 5

God tests Abraham's faith.

Learning Focus 3

God's covenant with Abraham.

Abraham is dedicated to God, when he hears God's call Abram, who becomes Abraham, listens and responds, and each time these responses are sealed by a series of covenants.

In the story of Joseph he is a favourite son who is rejected and sold into slavery by his brothers. Through his ability to interpret dreams, Joseph is a significant figure in Egypt and saves his family.

Decisions made by Abraham and Joseph were informed by their faith, hope and love in God

The virtues of faith, hope and love help us to be a good neighbour.

Our lives and the lives of communities can be transformed by the virtues of faith, hope and love.
