The Group of Apostles (Mary)

The disciples recognised Jesus when he breaks the bread.

Mary continues to guide our prayers.

At Mass, what we eat looks like bread, but it is Jesus who comes, the living God. The bread is the Body of Christ.

Mass was celebrated in the early Church.

There is only one God, who is three Persons.

The sign of the cross is the shortest summary of the Christian faith.

God is a community within himself: an eternal exchange of love between Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We call this mystery the Trinity.

Some of our prayers that reference the Trinity and the work of the Holy Spirit.

Through Mary, the Holy Spirit guided the first disciples.

The celebration of Mass ends by reminding Christians of Jesus' instruction to make disciples of all nations.
